Mystery Books from the Award Winning Book Clubs at Murder by the Book in Denver, Colorado

_In the evening when the work is done, nothing is better than curling up in your comfy chair with your favorite mystery books._

Denver, CO (PRWEB) February 27, 2008 -- Mystery books recommended by Lauri Ver Schure, the proprietor of Murder by the Book in Denver, Colorado are guaranteed to please. As a child she read mystery books under the covers with a flashlight when she was supposed to be sleeping. Lauri personally reads and selects the books they deliver for their mystery book clubs. Most of these books have received awards. This attention she pays to her most beloved book club subscribers is a huge benefit to them. The books you receive from the Murder by the Book Book Clubs are always guaranteed to be a great read. This care in book club selection is a major reason for the popularity of the Murder by the Book book clubs. Murder by the Book, a mystery bookstore in Denver, Colorado has been in business since the early 1980's. They specialize in personal service and knowledge of mystery books.

"I read a ton of mystery books to make our book club selections. Mystery books have been a passion all of my life, and all of our book club members benefit from my true love of mystery books."

Lauri's love of mystery books is a major benefit to the book club members and Murder by the Book's customers. Once a quarter she makes a selection for each of the 3 the book clubs: 1sts (the first book by a new author), cozy and hardboiled. These books are then delivered to all book club members who subscribe to the service. You can subscribe to Murder by the Book's mystery book clubs service online.

Through the years, many of the books that Ms. Ver Schure selected for the book clubs have received prestigious book awards. This effort to ensure the book club members receive the best books available in their genre has paid off in the satisfaction of the entire readership.
